“The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.”

The concept of the Blessed Trinity is impossible to grasp, and yet this mystery is central to our Catholic Faith. Defining or explaining God is beyond our ability, but the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity attempts to do more than explain God. It also attempts to describe our experience of God. As we ponder our personal experience of God, and as we struggle to put words to that experience, we should also ponder our response. How have we returned God's love for us? Do we behave as a person who believes that God loves us? Do we act as a person who one day wants to live with God for all eternity? Can people observe us or listen to us and know without a doubt that we love? Do we strive to build peace in our homes or our workplaces? We will never understand the nature of God (three in one, one in three), but living lives of faith, hope, and love offers us a glimpse into the mystery of the Blessed Trinity, a communion of love.

Eucharistic Miracles, Paris, France

In the year 1290, Paris, France, was honored with a remarkable Eucharistic miracle. A poor woman had nothing of value, except a dress, which she pawned to obtain a little money for living expenses. With the approach of Easter Sunday, she yearned to be well dressed for the great feast day, but since she did not have enough money to claim for her dress, she visited the pawnbroker and asked if she could have it for just one more day. The pawn broker, described as a non-Christian, was curious about the Host received by Catholics at the Holy Mass. He informed the woman that she could have her dress completely if she would bring him a consecrated Host which she would receive in Holy Communion at the Holy Mass.

Consenting to this shameful proposal, the poor woman attended the Holy Mass and received the Sacrament. After secretly removing the Host from her mouth, she delivered it to the home of the pawn broker, who placed it on the table. Then in the presence of the woman and of his own children, the man drew out a pocketknife and repeatedly stabbed the Host.

Suddenly blood in great streams gushed out from the cuts, splashing the woman and the children. Shocked by the flow of blood, the man threw the Host into a nearby fire, where it fluttered among the flames, completely unaffected by the fire or the heat. Then thoroughly frightened, he snatched the Host from the fire and in another attempt to destroy it, he dropped it into a kettle of boiling water.

The water immediately began to turn red and bloody. Somehow, the bloody water spilled over the kettle, fell onto the floor, and coursed its way down the street, where it attracted the attention of a passerby. A woman outside was curious of its origins and entered the house, where she witnessed a vision of Jesus Christ standing before the kettle. In a few moments, the vision disappeared, but in its place, the woman saw the Host suspended in the air. As the Host gradually descended, the woman snatched a nearby vase and received it into the receptacle. Then with great care and reverence, the Host was taken to the Church of Saint Jean-en-Grave, where it was preserved as a precious treasure and was honored with special services, especially on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi.

Today, the miraculous Host is preserved in the Church of Saint Francis, in La Chapelle du Miracle (The Chapel of the Miracle), where it is visited by many pilgrims. The Church has declared the miracle to be authentic, and many pilgrims have experienced extraordinary healings in the presence of this treasured Host.

Rest in God's Peace

We offer our prayers and condolences to the family of +Donald Schantz, whose Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated recently at Sacred Heart Church. +Donald was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather and a devoted servant of Jesus Christ and His holy Church. For his beautiful life of fidelity and love here on earth, may he now be admitted to the company of the saints in Heaven. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

May You Reign with God

We offer our prayers and condolences to the family of +Ray Diede, whose funeral liturgy was recently celebrated at Sacred Heart Church. +Ray was faithful in his vocation of marriage and family life and was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. For living his life in love, may he now experience the eternal love of the Kingdom. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

On the Lighter Side

The homily was extraordinarily long on a particular Sunday morning and little Timmy was getting more and more restless by the minute. Suddenly, in a whisper too loud for his mother's comfort, he blurted out, “Mom, if we give him the money now, will he let us go?”

A Christian Point to Ponder

If things created are so full of loveliness, how resplendent with beauty must be the One who made them! The wisdom of the Worker is apparent in His handiwork.
