“The two recounted what had taken place on the way and how He was made known to them in the breaking of bread.” After His resurrection, when Jesus appeared to the two disciples on the way to Emmaus, they did not recognize Him. Jesus explained all the Scripture passages that referred to Him in the Old Testament and applied them to Himself, but they still did not make the connection. When they stopped at the village and He broke bread with them, celebrating the Holy Eucharist with them, then their eyes were opened and they finally recognized Jesus. The spiritual lesson for all of us in this is that when we have questions, doubts, or concerns about our faith, we should bring them to the Holy Mass. As Jesus is most powerfully present at the Holy Mass, this is where we should especially seek His wisdom and guidance in the difficulties of life. Those who encounter the Lord in the breaking of the bread, the Holy Eucharist, find that only this sacred gift can satisfy the longings of their hearts and minds.

Eucharistic Miracles, The Miracle of Santarem, Portugal

There lived in the village of Santarem, Portugal (near Fatima), a poor woman whose life was miserable because of the infidelities of her roving husband. In her extreme unhappiness, she consulted a sorceress, who promised deliverance from her trials for the price of a consecrated Catholic Host. After many hesitations, the woman finally consented and visited the Church of Saint Stephen. After receiving Holy Communion, she removed the Host from her mouth and wrapped it in her veil, intending to take it to the sorceress.

But within a few minutes, blood began to flow from the Host. The amount of blood increased so much that it dripped from the cloth and attracted the attention of some bystanders. Seeing blood on the woman's hand and arm, and thinking that she was injured, several witnesses rushed forward to help. The woman avoided them and ran to her home, leaving a trail of blood behind her.

Hoping to hide the bloody veil and its contents, she placed them in a chest, but during the night, she was forced to reveal them to her husband when a mysterious light issued forth from the trunk. This light penetrated the wood and illuminated the whole house. Both knelt in adoration for the remaining hour until dawn when the parish priest was summoned.

The Host was taken in procession to the Church of Saint Stephen, where it was encased in wax and secured in the tabernacle. Sometime later, when the tabernacle was opened, another miracle was discovered. The wax that had enclosed the Host was found broken into pieces, and the Host was found miraculously enclosed in a crystal pyx. This was later placed in a gold and silver pear-shaped monstrance with a sunburst of thirty-three rays; it is still contained in this monstrance today.

The Church of Saint Stephen was later renamed the Church of the Holy Miracle. It is here that the Host is still preserved and displayed for the admiration and veneration of pilgrims. The Host is noted as somewhat irregular in shape, with delicate veins running from the top to the bottom, where a quantity of blood has collected in the crystal. In the opinion of Doctor Arthur Hoagland, a New Jersey physician who observed the miraculous Host, the coagulated blood at the bottom of the crystal is the color of fresh blood, a phenomenon which has been observed by many for over seven hundred years.

The Newest Christian Among Us

We offer our prayers and congratulations to Owen Allan Duppong (the son of Alexander & Suzanne Duppong) who was baptized last Sunday at Sacred Heart Church. May God bless Owen Allan and his parents, as they rejoice in the treasured gift of faith that he received on the day of his Baptism. This gift will bring him many blessings in this lifetime and is the only gift that he will take with him one day to the glory of Heaven.

O Jesus, We Adore Thee

Congratulations and blessings to Dayton Schafer and Hunter Wetzel, who received their First Holy Communion at Sacred Heart Church last Sunday. May God bless Dayton and Hunter as they continue to receive our Lord with great love and devotion at every Sunday Mass. May the joy they showed in receiving Jesus in their First Holy Communion remind all of us how blessed we are to receive this sacred gift from Heaven.

Rest in God's Peace

We offer our prayers and condolences to the family of +John Conlon, whose Mass of Christian Burial was recently celebrated at Saint Ann's Church. After a lifetime of loving and serving others, may +John receive the reward of his goodness with the eternal love of God's Kingdom. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Help Wanted

On Saturday, April 25th, at 10:00 AM, we need volunteers to do some spring clean-up work on the parish grounds of Sacred Heart Church and to remove the carpet from the basement of the Sacred Heart rectory. Not to compete with Monopoly, but all volunteers bypass Purgatory and go directly to Heaven.

On the Lighter Side: Just a warning, but Judas was the first person to leave Mass early.

A Christian Point to Ponder: God is enough. If I have Him, I have all I need.
