“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, fear Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell” (Matthew 10:28).

This and other Gospel texts about hell (c.f. Matthew 5:22; Mark 9:43, 45, 47; Luke 12:5, et. al.) remind us that hell does indeed exist. In hell, those who die in mortal sin suffer eternal punishment in a manner not known, yet to be feared. Therefore, Jesus warned His disciples against false fear. We should not fear those who can only kill the body. Only God can cast both body and soul into hell. Therefore, God is the only one we should fear and respect; He is our king and our supreme judge... not men. The martyrs, Christians who died for the Faith, have obeyed this precept of the Lord in the fullest manner. They understood that eternal life is worth more than earthly life. May this holy example guide our lives as well because Heaven and hell are eternal. The one we will experience is determined now, by how we live for God today.

The Spiritual Works of Mercy: To Bear Wrongs Patiently

Definition: It is an act of love to accept the consequences of another's thoughtlessness or carelessness and to suffer inconveniences which another should bear. This is the example given to us by Jesus, who suffered greatly for us all upon the Cross, even though He was innocent.

Scriptural references: Matthew 5:38-48; Luke 6:27-36; and I Peter 2:18-19

Applications: 1) Work at being less critical of others; 2) Overlook the minor flaws and mistakes of others; 3) Give people the benefit of the doubt; 4) Assume that people who may have hurt you did so because they are enduring pain of their own; 5) Pray for those who have wronged you; 6) Offer fraternal correction in love, because charitable and wise guidance may help others in their conversion from sin; 7) Meditate upon the Cross of Jesus daily and find an example of patience and charity in the midst of trials inflicted upon you by others.

A Privilege to Serve at the Altar: I am grateful for the altar servers in our parishes, who assist at the altar of sacrifice and therefore assist all of us in a deeper experience of worship at the Holy Mass. But there are areas of needed improvement in this ministry in the life of our parishes:

1) Please come at least ten minutes before Mass begins so that we are not scrambling to have you: vested, light the altar candles, and be instructed for directives for special liturgies (e.g., using incense).

2) For girls, please pull your hair back into a braid, a ponytail, or a bun; do not wear sandals, flip flops, or tennis shoes; and make sure that you hang up your alb properly when Mass is complete.

3) For boys, please do not wear tennis shoes, flip flops, or sandals and make sure that you hang up your cassock and surplice properly when Mass is complete.

4) When you light the altar candles, on the main altar or on the high altar, please do not extend the flame and the wick over the expanse of white cloth, but light the candles as closely as you can to the candles themselves. As pastor, I tire of having to remove wax from the altar cloths. If you think this is an easy process, I will gladly offer you a new ministry of maintaining the altar cloths.

5) Please do not visit one another during Mass, unless you are asking questions about some of the duties of the altar server within Mass.

Thank you for keeping these instructions in mind so that in your presence and in your ministry, you can lead us all into a more sacred celebration of the Holy Mass. Saint John Berchmans, the patron saint of altar servers... pray for them.

Help Guide Our Parish: In a couple of weeks, we will begin the nomination process for a seat on the parish council at Sacred Heart Parish. This is to fill the seat vacant due to the death of +Bob Herz, of blessed memory. I encourage you to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, as we select an individual who will assist our parish in growing in our faith for Christ and in our witness to Christ.

Blessings to the Newest Christian Among Us: We offer our prayers and congratulations to Braden & McKenna Wehri whose daughter, Oaklynn Paige Wehri, was baptized last Sunday at Saint Ann's Parish. May the joyous day of her baptism be the start of a beautiful life of faith here on earth, culminating one day in the eternal life of Heaven. God bless you Oaklynn Paige and be assured of our prayers for you.

Ideas Wanted: This summer, we will be taking our junior high and high school students to Bismarck to go to the escape room, Breakout ND, and then lunch afterwards at the Pizza Ranch. We are still in need of some ideas for a youth activity for our young people in grades K-six. If you have some thoughts on this matter, please contact Mary Morman and Kylie Schaaf. One idea came in that I thoroughly enjoy... picking the weeds in the priest's vegetable garden. Sounds like tons of fun!

On the Lighter Side: At a wedding, a young girl asked her mother why the bride was dressed in white. Her mother replied, "Because white represents happiness and today is the happiest day of her life." The girl's next question was, "Then why is the groom dressed in black?"

A Christian Point to Ponder: The foolish person is the one who would think that it is in his power to commit a sin that is greater than the power of God to forgive.

Parish News & Events

The Thirty-One Club: A unique club...no rules, no fees, no meetings and no newsletters. Each member chooses one date in the month and offers Rosary on that day for Church vocations. At this Rosary, the member prays for all priests, sisters, brothers and deacons who have served the parish in the past year, for those who are now serving and that future Church vocations will be forthcoming from the parish. Anyone can join. Just pick a date. Then, each month for the next year, offer your Rosary on that date. A sign-up sheet is on the resource table.

Second Collection: Next weekend, June 27th & 28th we have a second collection, The Peter's Pence Collection. Envelopes for this collection will be on the resource table in the gathering space.

Out of the Office: I will be out of the office on Wednesday, July 1st but will be in the office regular hours on Thursday, July 2nd. Thank you, Linda Wagner.

Mass at St. Joseph's: There will be Mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rural Grant County on July 5, 2026 at 12:30pm CST.

Thank You: The Women of Sacred Heart want to thank everyone who worked, baked or donated items to help make our rummage sale another success. Thank you to all those who came to help clean up. We were able to donate $2,958.39 to help repair the rectory floor. Thanks to all of you who stopped in to shop or eat.

You Are Invited: On Thursday, June 25 after the 9:00am Mass, we will be celebrating Fr. Gary's Birthday. We will be having fellowship in the kitchen area in the church. Come help us celebrate Father's birthday and remind him that he is no spring chicken anymore!

After Thursday Morning Mass: There will be fellowship in the kitchen area with baked goods and coffee.

Stewardship Thought: The heart grateful to God needs to find a way to express that gratitude. Some ways to do that are through prayer, service, and giving of one's resources.

Women of Sacred Heart: Women of Sacred Heart meet every 3rd Tuesday of the month. Our next meeting is on Sept. 15th at 4:00pm. All are welcome.

Knights of Columbus: Knights of Columbus meetings are on the 1st Thursday of the month. New members are welcome.
