“He said to them, ‘But who do you say that I am?’

Simon Peter answered, ‘You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God.’”

There was an irreligious farmer who reveled in his disregard for religion, and he wrote a letter to his local newspaper in these words, “Sir: I have been trying an experiment with a field of mine. I plowed it on Sunday. I planted it on Sunday. I cultivated it on Sunday. I harvested it on Sunday. And now, Mr. Editor, what is the result? This October, I had more bushels to the acre from this field than any of my neighbors had on their fields.” Well, when the farmer opened the newspaper the next week, sure enough, there was his letter printed just as he had sent it, but underneath it was the short but significant sentence: “God does not always settle accounts in October.” In one short sentence, the editor, in the public forum, witnessed to his faith, reminding others about our final judgment one day before the throne of Jesus Christ. Like Saint Peter, who confessed Jesus as the Son of the living God, may we do so as well in our lives. May we remind others that Jesus is our Lord here on earth and one day, He will be our Lord in Heaven as well. Let us never be afraid to share our Christian faith so that all people will one day share in the fullness of eternal life in the Kingdom.

The Corporal Works of Mercy, Visit the Imprisoned

Scriptural reference: Matthew 25: 36

Definition: Those in prison are atoning for their crimes and offenses, yet they are still children of God and deserve our love, compassion, and concern. So also do their families, who love them and miss having them in their daily lives.

Applications: 1) Support and/or participate in ministries to those who are incarcerated.

2) Support programs sponsored by agencies that advocate on behalf of those who are unjustly imprisoned.

3) Support job training and educational programs designed to rehabilitate prisoners.

4) Pray for those in prison and for the families of inmates as well, especially their spouses and children.

5) Support holiday programs that provide gifts for prisoners and their families.

6) Fight for humane treatment for the imprisoned.

7) Support efforts that seek the abolition of the death penalty.

8) Send Bibles, along with old copies of religious publications and periodicals to local jails or prisons.

Fall Dinners . . . Coming to a Parish Near You: On Sunday, October 11th, Sacred Heart Parish will be hosting its annual Fall Dinner. Thank you to everyone who so generously donated to the raffle ticket. We are now in need of individuals willing to donate baskets for the Chinese Auction. You do not have to know the actual contents of the basket at this time, but approximately the value of the basket you will be donating. We need these soon so that we can apply for the permit from the City of Glen Ullin. Last year at our Fall Dinner we instituted a new element, the Country Store. This went over very well so we will be having it once again this year. What do you donate to the Country Store? Pretty much anything you want, including garden produce, handcrafted items, jellies and other preserves, etc. Thank you to everyone who so generously donate their time, talent, and treasure to our Fall Dinner. It is a great way to bring people together for great food and hospitality and the proceeds help our parish to continue to meet its temporal needs.

On Sunday, November 1st, Saint Ann’s Parish will be hosting its Knoephla Soup & Sausage Dinner. This is a new time of year for Saint Ann's parish dinner and hopefully with nicer weather, it will bring more people to our celebration. Currently, we are still accepting cash prizes and other items for our raffle tickets. We must have these donations before September 1st, so that we can submit our application to the City of Hebron for the permit needed. We are also seeking donations of baskets for the Chinese Auction, which are due by the end of September. A reminder that there are sign-up sheets for the parish dinner in the entryway of Saint Ann’s Church.

Thank you to everyone who in the past has been so generous in making our parish dinners such a great success. Thank you as well for the work that you are doing now in preparing for our upcoming parish dinners. I understand that it is a lot of work, but it allows us to extend our parish hospitality to people from far and wide and to bring people together for good food and good conversation. I look forward to both of our parish dinners, and I assume any leftovers from the meals will be going home with the pastor (hint, hint).

Rest in God’s Peace: We offer our condolences to the family of +Eleanor Wagner and the family of +Diane McKiernan, whose funeral liturgies we're celebrated this past week at Sacred Heart Parish. Both women were servants of Jesus and were servants as well of the people they loved here on earth, especially their families. For their love of God and neighbor, may they now experience the eternal love of His Kingdom. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

On the Lighter Side: The church bulletin is the official receipt to prove that you attended Mass.

A Christian Point to Ponder: We ought to be more thankful for God's blessings because we deserve so few of them.

AUGUST IS NATIONAL MAKE-A-WILL MONTH

Do you have a Will written? If not, here is an easy and FREE way to get one written.

Everyone should have a Will regardless of age or wealth, in order to find peace of mind by planning for the future.

Preparing your will is an act of Catholic stewardship, allowing you to share your faith and blessings you have been given with future generations. It is also one of the most reliable ways to protect the people God has placed in your care today.

The Bismarck Diocese has secured FreeWill, an online service that makes it simple and free to create your own Will. All you have to do is go to this link:

www.bismarckdiocese/freewill.com. From the convenience of your own home, you select your own username and then start typing in your information. In about 20 minutes, you are done. Once you have finished, you simply print out your Will, then have your signature witnessed by a notary public. If you have any questions, please contact the Bismarck Diocese: Ron Schatz, (701) 204-7202, rschatz@bismarckdiocese.com or Bryan Winterberg, (701) 415-0399, bwinterberg@bismarckdiocese.com
